Helping You Hear Your Best Arizona Hearing Specialists hires additional Audiologist to the Team

November 2006/Tucson, AZ/Arizona Hearing Specialists welcomes its newest member to the team, Frances (Fran) P. Harris, Ph.D., CCC-A, CCC-SP. With eight years of experience as a lecturer, associate professor, assistant department head and senior lecturer, and adjunct lecturer with the University of Arizona's Department of Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences, Fran brings a wealth of knowledge to the practice.

She also has a number of years of experience in the research field, overseas. She is committed to education and will be offering patients free periodic educational seminars on how to cope with the effects that hearing loss can have on communication, and the overall quality of their lives.

Fran received her Bachelor of Science degree in Speech and Hearing from the University of Southwestern Louisiana. She earned her Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in Speech and Hearing Sciences from the University of Arizona. She has been a member of such professional organizations as the American Speech, Language, Hearing Association and the American Academy of Audiology and has many articles published in professional journals, including the Journal of the Acoustical Society of America, American Journal of Speech-Language Pathology, Journal of the American Academy of Audiology, Laryngoscope, and British Journal of Audiology.

Founded by Janis Wolfe Gasch, Au.D., Arizona Hearing Specialists is a group of audiologists that for 25 years has been specializing in the identification and prevention of hearing problems and the rehabilitation of those who have hearing problems. Arizona Hearing Specialists fits the most current technology in hearing aids available from all the major manufacturers.
